3. WRITING

Write 80-100 words.

Comment on the following statement:

The Internet is the best source of information.

What is your opinion? Do you agree with this statement?

I agree that the Internet is the best source of information. In my opinion, the Internet is the most comfortable source, because you can use it wherever and whenever you want to find all kinds of information. You can find answers on everything you need. There are a lot of ways you can do this, as well. You have a chance to ask other people about something through the Internet or you can just type your question to get answers from the variety of different links. But there are some risks, too. Scrolling a lot of different links you can find a huge amount of information and, of course, something will be wrong and you will be disinformationed. But that's nothing comparing with the variety of virus; which can be dangerous for your PC and your personal data.

To be honest, there is not such a high risk to get attacked by "virus" if you know the basic things about using the Internet, so, obviously, it has much more advantages.

What is your opinion? Do you agree with this statement?

I really think that the Internet is the best source of information. Did you ever use the Internet? I'm sure yes. Because it becomes the most important part of our lives. All of us use it and we don't know what we will do if the Internet once stop working. So it is the most comfortable source of information for people now. In the Internet we can find all types of information that we need. We should not go to the books' house for finding books with information. And this makes our life more comfortable. So yes, I agree with this statement.

Comment on the following statement:

The Internet is the best source of information.

What is your opinion? Do you agree with this statement?

I am the 9th class student and I really think that the Internet is the best source of information.

Our <sup>21st</sup> century is the century of technologies and it is normal that people found different information in the Internet, not in the books, because it is more quickly and simpler and mostly people, basic people, can understand the text which they are reading. For example, my granny isn't a doctor and she <sup>sometimes</sup> doesn't understand what her daughter, my aunt, say to her, but she thinks that found words in books is very long and when you've find the meaning of words it isn't actual and understanding.

So I agree with this statement.

What is your opinion? Do you agree with this statement?

I think, the statement: "The Internet is the best source of information", is true, and now, I will explain why.

Firstly, the Internet have the widest knowledge base in the world. There are all knowledges of humanity.

Secondly, ~~all~~ information in The Internet is regularly checked by experts. It is proves that information in the Internet is actual.

Thirdly, if you want to know about something, the Internet can give you a wide spectre of information. From popular-scientific, to real science researches, that concentrate on this theme.

At last, I ~~can~~ think that I prove my opinion about this statement.

My clothes

I like trousers and jeans. I don't like shirts but I like T-shirts and sweaters. I also like baseball caps. My favourite colours are blue and red.

At school I usually wear my black trousers or blue jeans, and a T-shirt or a sweater. I've got a lot of T-shirts. My favourite T-shirt is blue with a picture of a tiger on it. I usually wear trainers. I've got some black shoes, but I don't like them.

At the moment I'm wearing blue jeans, a red and blue sweater and my new trainers. I really love my new trainers!
