I think everyone someone want to teaching at home. But is it good idea? let's look.

Actually, having a parent as a teacher it is not usually, for me for example it is embarrassment when my mother try to teaching me, I feeling myself so uncomfortable and silly, because I am not child anymore. And when you always with parents, how could you meet with new people?.. By the way, let's talking about school friends!

Exactly, when you haven't classmates - you'real talking and communicate with people your age's. Sometimes it's so ^{any} unmaintain and humiliate for yourself ~~for me it is / As for~~ It's destroying me make more enormous worring. Being at home it's so annoying, And I really don't understand people, whose teaching at home... ~~don't~~ dude you have near TV or computer, why are you doing so boring things... HA-HA joke, to be honest it's important for future. At school you can have more fun, friend and different ang teachers, which gives you different knowledge, ~~so~~ as good as they go.

Knowledge it is so important. If you will have them - you will have good job. So can only one person give you all knowledge, which give you many people at school, like teachers? I don't think so, but now, at the time of technology you have a possibility to watching online lessons, like I do it, it's so exciting, I ~~eat~~ bananas when doing it. 62

But teaching at home with parent, it is not so bad like you don't teaching at all. That's because I think it's normal if you ~~let~~ feel yourself comfortable, it's just my opinion. 33

Essay.

01-10

The problem of home education was always aroused with strong debates. Some people said, that they rather teach their children at home, then send them to school, when others think that children should ~~be~~ study at school.

In my opinion, children should study at school, and I am going to explain why.

Firstly, ~~at~~ school teachers are people with special education. It means that they were taught, how to teach. When at home teaching, parent need just to learn some courses, so it doesn't mean that he can teach his child, especially in all subjects.

Secondly, ~~home teaching~~ studying at home, often causes trouble with socialisation of child, because he almost don't interact with other children. W. at school he communicate ^{with others} most of the time.

Someone can said, that in school ~~can~~ also ^{could} be bad teachers, that don't know their subject. But at school child works with different teachers, on different subjects. When at home, teaching parent can be incompetent at all.

Thirdly, studying at home could become very expensive, because education need a lot of supplies of different kind. ∇

Finally, I want to say, that school education is better than home education, ~~for the~~ because of the line of disadvantage of last one. ~~Home~~ Studying at home can not be the main way to gain education.
